PREVIEWING THE PASSION

ONCE AGAIN THIS LENT you are invited to gather in the parish hall each Thursday evening to join with others for supper, to share in a simple service of Holy Communion, and to reflect on a passage from Mark's account of the events of Holy Week - alongside an artist's representation - before ending with the traditional office of Night Prayer.

You may not be able to come every week, but that's OK as each evening will stand alone and requires no previous knowledge or involvement. Nor do you need to be an art buff or biblical scholar in order to contribute to the discussion - your thoughts and appreciation is as good as anyone's, so there's no need to think it's not for you!

As we 'preview the Passion' in the weeks of Lent, we are able to prepare for the liturgies of Holy Week & Easter and enter more deeply into the mystery at the heart of our faith.

PLEASE COMPLETE this section to book your place (and meal!), tear it off and return to Fr Richard. Places for supper are limited to 30 each evening - but if you can't make supper but would still like to join the discussion groups you are very welcome - equally if you'd like to come for supper and give the chat a miss, that's perfectly acceptable as well!
